

Classes, Groups and Private Lessons where new Classmates Would be Welcome

Classes

Monday evenings from 8-9:30pm

A class of 4 who meet ca. 3 Mondays per month.

B2 level, using a course book geared towards the First Certificate Exam, though taking the exam is an option. Speaking, Reading, Writing, Listening and Grammar all practiced. Emphasis on Speaking.

Tuesday mornings from 8:15-9:45am

A class of 6 who meet weekly. This is a conversation class that has been coming together for a long time to discuss everything under the sun. We use newspaper and magazine articles as a starting point and expand from there. A bit of grammar or vocabulary homework is the norm as well.

Tuesday evenings from 7:30-9pm

A class of 6 ladies, including the student who has been coming to me the longest. Again a conversation class as such, but we are using an Advanced level course book at the moment as well. That is, we always have the books at hand though conversation is definitely the focus.

Every second Thursday morning from 9-11am

A class of 5 ladies who have been with me since the days of Migros Klubschule. Conversation first, but short stories a close second.

Every second Friday from 2-4pm

A class of 5 ladies. Here we mix conversation with grammar. We use the blue Murphy's grammar book on a regular basis.

Groups

Short Stories and More Every 2nd Tuesday from 13:00-14:00

The group I had hoped to start up before summer break, has. 3 ladies who are A2 to B1 levels. Short stories and vocabulary is the focus here.

Private Lessons

Every Tuesday from 6-7pm

A young lady who has worked herself up to B1 level and is using a coursebook based on preparation for the B1 exam (only optional to take or not to take) would gladly share her hour with another like minded person.
